THE DISTRICT AND COMMUNITY

The Selma Unified School District is located in Selma, California in Fresno County. It has eleven schools - one high school, one middle school, and eight elementary schools, and one continuation/adult school - and serves approximately 6,800 students grades K-12. Selma High School is a California Distinguished High School that offers a rigorous academic curriculum supported by outstanding co-curricular and extra-curricular programs.

Selma High School is a six-year accredited institution through June 2017 with the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

Selma is a rapidly growing community of over 24,000, located in the central San Joaquin Valley. It is widely known for its small-town charm and its big city development. Selma's location, at the crossroads of State Routes 99 and 43, makes it a regional hub for southeast Fresno County as well as neighboring Tulare and Kings Counties. Selma has an industrial space available for most any type of business and industrial land available for development.

Both new and long-time residents are discovering and rediscovering the joys of living in this delightful community. Selma provides an ideal location for shopping in its beautiful downtown and other shopping centers. Many new car dealerships also add to its appeal. Countless events offered through the City, the Chamber of Commerce, schools, churches and other community groups make Selma a great place to live, work and play.
